GOF WE DEFY COMPETITION IN QUALITY HATS and CAPS

The following docket was disposed of by His Honor yesterday morning:

Daniel Crumbacker was up on two charges—for disorderly conduct, and for assaulting Thomas Pyle. In each case he was fined $5, which he paid.

Richard Garden and James Chapman were charged with drunkenness. The former was fined $2 and the latter $1. Both fines were paid.

Patrick Gibbin was charged with assaulting Sylvester Haulish. The case was dismissed on payment of costs.

Isane Smith was fined $5 for drunkenness, and execution was suspended on condition that defendant leave the city.

Edwin Shaw, a vagrant, was fined $2, and execution was suspended on condition that he leave the city.

Gus Wagoner, for disorderly conduct, was fined $5, which he paid.

For using prolane language in a public place, Charles Nightingale was fined $2,

SHE SCALDED HIM.—Ever since that unfortunate trouble of our first parents in Eden, the flat iron, the broom stick, the skillet and pots of boiling water have been considered effective as feurinine weapons of warfare. The frequency with which these uncomfortable adjuncts of civilization have been used is probably accounted for by the fact that they are nearly kept handy to the kitchen, where accounted for by the fact that they are usually kept handy to the kitchen, where women of red hot tempers so frequently dwell. As the world has grown older, and as some think wiser, the art of using scalding water as an offensive weapon has lost caste among the ladies of our best society, but that the art is not entirely lost to the world is proved by the fact that several days ago a certain young lady in Centre Wheeling Ilid, with malice prepense, throw a pot of boiling water at the head of of a young gentleman who had presumed to make indecent proposals to her. Fortunately much of the water missed the face of the victim and alighted on his head, but as it was his face was badly scalded.

MISTAKEN HIS CALLING.—Col. Shallcross tells a good one of a drunken fellow, genteelly dressed, who staggered into the front entrance of the National Hotel at Washington City on Christmas eve. As the fellow came in his attention was attracted to a card writer, who was sitting at a stand on the left of the hall, writing the name of a gentleman on a package of blank cards. He walked to the stand and watched the card writer (who, by the way, is said to be one of the finest in the business), and after he had inished the name on the card said to him: "Young man (hic), you have mis (hic)-taken your MISTAKEN HIS CALLING .- Col. Shallname on the card said to him: "Young man (hie), you have mis (hie)-taken your calling (hie); you are in the (hie) wrong place; you want (hie) to die and go (hie) to heaven, and (hie) be recording angelyou (hie) write darned protty (hie)."

you (hic) write darned pretty (hic)."

NUMEROUS complaints having been made to Mayor Sweeney and to Mr. A. C. Egerter, Chairman of the Committee on Workhouse, of damage done to property in the vicinity of the workhouse by the "strippings" from the quarry being washed down the hill, the chairman issued a call for a meeting of the committee in the afternoon to investigate the matter. Measrs. Egerter and Kinghorn were the only members of the committee who responded to the call, and they proceeded together to the workhouse to ascertain the cause of the reported damage. The committee found that the matter had been entirely misrepresented to them, and it was of such a trilling nature that no action was taken in the premises.

REMEMBER THE POOR.—The poor should never be forgotten; they should always be remembered that we may, in every way in our power, aid and assist them. In these holiday times, when all is so joyous and everybody so happy, a great deal might be done for those in want. If one per cent of the amount thrown away in the purchase of unnecessary things were given to the poor, it would place them beyond want during the entire winter. The giddy throngs that go up and down our streets in pursuit of handsome presents for their friends do not, we imagine, think of the indigence around them, or they would not be so thoughtless of the pinching want of the poverty stricken classes.

year the school has had 1,000 visitors, an average of twenty each Sunday. A large number of letters, containing congratulations upon the success of the school in the past, and well wishes for its future, had been received from prominent gentlemen throughout the country, whose names were announced by Mr. Barnitz. The letters were not read, for the want of time, but their contents will be made public at the Sabbath School next Sabbath. Mr. Barnitz explained that their church was not large enough to hold their anniversary in, hence they were obliged to come to Mr. Hamilton's Opera House, but the did not think the house would be hurr if more entertainments of the kind were held in it.

Before Rev. Barnitz commenced distributing the rewards two very little girls came forward with a beautiful chromo, and addressing the reverend gentlem, and addressing the reverend gentlem, and addressing the reverend gentlem.

Before Rev. Barnitz commenced distributing the rowards two very little girls came forward with a beautiful chromo, and addressing the reverend gentleman in a pretty little speech announced that the "Jewel Department" desired to present the picture to Mr. John H. Zoveley, the Superintendent of the School. Mr. Barnitz responded briefly, saying that Mr. Zeveley was one of the ablest Superintendents in the countil under no circumstances be persualed to make a speech.

Then followed the distribution of rewards, which had the effect of brightening the eyes of the little ones, who looked wary enough a moment before. Miss Mary Robertson, Superintendent of the "Jewel Department," was the recipient of a handsome little chromo, a china cup and saucer, a silver call bell, a copy of Nelson's illuminated text, and, as Rev. Barnitz announced, "about 144 pocket handkerchiefs," from her loving pupils. Miss Ann Schoonover, teacher of class No. 10, received a pair of beautiful china vascs. Miss Mary Armstrong received a fine copy of the Bible, and Miss Maggie Dixon a silver medal, for committing to memory the largest number of Scripture verses. Nine little girls who had committed to memory the "Golden Texts of the Year," comprising the lesson verse for every week in the year, each received a beautiful book. Those who had not missed a Sunday at school during the year were also rewarded, the baye sech receiving a penknife and the girls each a pair of silver-plated spoons. condition of the ruins has been the subject of convesation ever since the fire, and yeaterday morning many, severe comments were made upon the negligence of the authorities in permitting the unsteady walls to remain standing, to the imminent peril of the lives of those who have occasion to visit the vicinity.

The attention of Mayor Sweeney having been called to the matter, he at an early hour in the morning served a written notice upon Mr. Alex, Rogers, President of the Washington Hall Association, notifying him that the walls were in an unsafe condition and should be taken down immediately; and that the city would not be responsible for damages on accounted destruction of life and property,

A NELEGANT TEA SET.—Mr. Lawrence Walther, proprietor of Walther's Hall, in the Sixth Ward, was the recipient of an elegant silver tea set, consisting of seven pieces, on Christman night. The donors were the members of Black Prince Lodge No. 19, Knights of Pythias, and the presentation speech was made by Capt. B. B. Dovener.

It must not be inferred that because the newspapers are full of whisky just now, the editors are in a similar condition. At this hazardons season of the year the industrious journalist comforts himself with nothing stronger than boiled ice water.

THIRTEENTH ANSIVERSARY OF THE ENGLISH LUTHERAN SUNDAY SCHOOL.—
The Opera House was complete and perfect whole last night. It had what it has sometimes lacked of late—an occupant for every chair. The extraordinary attraction was the thirteenth anniversary of the English Lutheran Sunday School. About 8 v clock the curtain rose upon near 300 children, seated in tiers upon the stage. The scene was a most beautiful one, the little falts looking bright and happy in CHRISTMAS TREAT AT THE U. P. CHURCH.—Last night the Sunday School of the U. P. Church (Rev. McClure) held their Christmas festivities in the baseof the U.P. Church (Kev. McClure) held their Christmas festivities in the basement of the Church. The exercises consisted of singing and short addresses by the Superintendent and others. Prizes of books were then given to the following scholars for proficiency in Catechism: Ida Manners, George Manners, Sallie Sweeney and James McAdams. Then followed the presentation of a beautiful gold-headed cane to Gen. T. M. Harris by the members of his Bible class. The presentation speech was delivered by Mr. W. J. W. Cowden in a very neat and appropriate style. General Harris responded in a few brief and fitting remarks. The cane was purchased at the well known establishment of Hennegen, Bates & Co, and engraved upon it was the following inscription:

"Presented to T. M. Harris by hisclass, U. P. S. S., Wheeling, W. V." The scene was a most beautiful one, the little folks looking bright and happy in their holiday clothes. The following programme was faithfully carried out.

Wheeling, W. Va."

Miss Jane Waterson was also presented by her Sunday School class with a stereoscope and a dozen views. Next came the distribution of sweets among the little ones of the school. A general good time ensued, and at an early hour all disappeared to their homes highly pleased with the evening's entertainment.

HAVERLY'S MINSTRELS,-Of Haverly'

Haverly's Minstreels.—Of Haverly's Minstrels, which appear in the Opera House on Thursday evening, the Pitaburgh Chronicleasys:

"A minstrel troupe that will attract amusement goers the second night must be good. It must be a first-class organization that tempts professionals and other showmen to at out the entire performance. We leave it to the public to draw their own inferences when we state that Haverly's Minstrels hold old showmen until the curtain falls. The fact speaks volumes. We have never witnessed anything in the shape of a minstrel performance that pleased us as much as the performance that pleased us as much as the performance at the head of the business. No person can equal French on the banjo; his manner is very much in his favor, while Frillman, Barlow, Wilson and the remainder of the company are unequalled in their respective lines. Finally, the company claims the best minstrel singers we have heard better singers."

The Zane Street Chimstrea Treat.

THE ZANE STREET CHRISTMAS TREAT -A very pleasant time was had at the Zane Street M. E. Church last night, i Zane Street M. F. Church assuming, it being the occasion of the annual treat to the Sabbath School. Several persons were made the recipients of handsome presents. Among the number were a handsome silver water pitcher to Mr. John T. Cowl, and a dressing gown to the matter.

Local Personals.—We notice in the Hinds County (Miss.) Gasette, an extended oblitary notice of the Rev. N. G. North, who died at Mt. Holly, Union county, Arkansas, on the 19th ult. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. S. D. Harper, of this city, and an uncle to Mr. Henry M. Harper, the wholesale hat merchant. A MEETING of the stockholders of the Atma Iron Works was held at the office of the company yesterday, to consider the propriety of sinking a gas well. We understand that the meeting was not largely attended, and that no definite action was taken upon the subject under consideration.

A SPECIAL meeting of Council is talked of for to-night, to take some action in regard to the dangerous condition of the Washington Hall ruins, which the fire wardens will probably be in structed to tear down.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU is still in the zenith of its popularity. Notwithstanding the absence of Dr. Helmbold, the celebrated medicine is still manufactured at the laboratory at Philadelphia, and is sold by all respectable druggists. It is warranted for all diseases of the kidneys and brinary organs. Beware of counterfeits. Genuine has proprietor's private stamp. John F. Henry, New York, Sole Agent.

REMEMBER THIS.—Now is the time of the year for Presemonia, Lung Fever, Coughs, Colds, and fatal results of predisposition to Consumption and other Throat and Lung Disease. Boschee's German Syrup has been used in this neighborhood for the past two or three years without a single failure to cure. If you have not used this medicine yourself go to your druggists and ask them of its wonderful success among their customers. Two doses will relieve the worst case. If you have no faith in any medicines, just buy a sample Bottle of Boschee's German Syrup for 10 cents and try it. Regular size Bottle 75 cents. Don't neglect a cough to save 75 cents. Legan, List & Co., to save 75 cents. Logan, List & Co., d&w Wholesale Agents
